WHAT IS A FUTURITY?

A Futurity is a prize program for young horses, which awards purses made up of the entry fees paid over a period of time by participants.

The ASHB Futurity of Tennessee actually consists of three separate Futurities, the Tennessee Futurity which is open to professional trainers, amateur and juvenile exhibitors showing weanlings, yearlings and two-year-olds; the Tennessee Amateur Futurity which is open to amateur and juvenile exhibitors showing weanlings, yearlings, and two-year-olds; and the Tennessee 3-Year-Old Futurity which is open to professional trainers, amateur and juvenile exhibitors showing 3-year-olds.

Nomination in the futurity begins with the weanling year and in order to maintain eligibility to show in the Futurity, fees must be paid each year to keep the entry nominated for the particular divisions. For entries in the weanling division, fees must also be paid to nominate the sire and dam.

PURPOSE

Futurities are held to encourage the breeding and showing of American Saddlebred horses. Showing a foal in a Futurity enhances its value and increases its earning potential; the value of the sire and dam may also be enhanced through the success of their progeny shown in the Futurities. Amateurs and juveniles, as well as professionals, have the opportunity to show young horses in Futurities. The experience should be entertaining, to both the audience and participants, and should present the American Saddlebred at its best, providing an opportunity for fun, competition and good sportsmanship.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

PRIZE FUNDS

All monies collected for each Futurity are allocated for that Futurity. The three Futurities' funds are then divided after administrative costs are deducted. The sire and dam nominators of the first and reserve winners in the weanling classes are awarded nominator payouts. The nominator of the sire and dam of the winner in each weanling class will be awarded $80 and the sire and dam nominators of the reserve winner in each weanling class will be awarded $40.
